Star Market Reopens Plans For Rt. 2 Area

Town Warrant Is Now Open

Closing time for the Warrant will be Monday Jan. 25, at 7:15 p.m. This was determined by the Selectmen at their Monday night meeting this week.

Also decided was the opening night of Town Meeting, which will be Monday March 21.

It will continue to Wednesday, and if necessary to the following Monday, omitting Friday nights, as in previous years.

Arlington Drivers In Perfect Score

In spite of a national record for holiday deaths and accidents over the New Year weekend, Arlington was relatively quiet.

Only two reported accidents marred an otherwise excellent traffic record, both occurring on Friday afternoon, New Year's Day.

In both cases, an out-of-town driver was taken to the police station under arrest for violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws.

The only local driver involved was reportedly stopped for a traffic light when his car was struck.

By an indirect move this week, Star Market revealed renewed interest in the development of the property off the Concord Turnpike (Rt. 2) in East Arlington.

Stephen Mugar, president of the firm with two engineers, appeared before the Development Commission Monday.

Mugar told the Commission that the drainage problem in the area is severe. He said that "neither he or anyone else" could develop the property to its full potential unless the Town assisted in the drainage of surface water.

Dorothy rd., Edith and Parker streets abut the property on the north and east. Mugar intimated that, if the drainage problem was solved, Star Market would proceed with a large development of at least $1,000,000.

Historically, the area was a bog before minor fill operations took place.

Old timers recall that before the locks in Medford square were installed and water was able to pour down the hills in the Heights into Spy Pond, one could travel by boat from the pond to Boston harbor and the open sea.

CERTIFIED by Selectmen to sell butter, eggs and poultry in this state is William L. Roch, 54 Amsden st.

1960 LISTING OF RESIDENTS is currently being taken in Arlington. Assistant Registrars of Voters will call at every residence to compile necessary statistics. Dedication Set For New Building

The new educational and social building of the Arlington Heights Methodist church will be consecrated at a special service on Sunday, Jan. 10.

The speaker will be the Rev. Gilbert Y. Taverner, president of the New England Conference Board of Education.

The litany of consecration will be led by the Rev. Willard C. Arnold, superintendent of the Lynn District. Others participating will include the Rev. Ronald Ober, former pastor, and the present pastor, Rev. Newell S. Booth Jr.

After the service, which will be held at 4 p.m. there will be a fellowship hour. Former members, and many friends, have been invited.

The new building was planned by the architectural firm of Collins, Willis, and Beckonert, and erected by Stammel Construction Co. The men of the church are working at completing the painting of the interior of the church.

At a recent meeting of the official board, it was voted to name the social hall in memory of the late Reverend Richard T. Broeg, for many years pastor of the church.

GOLF CLASSES

John Thoren, Myopia's golf pro, will again conduct his yearly golf clinic at Junior High East. Classes will commence on Tuesday, Jan. 5, at 7 p.m.

TOUR of Grove street property of Mystic Valley Gas Co. will be made Saturday afternoon by the Fin. Comm. and Selectmen with the Manager. Latter proposes its purchase by Town.

Arlington High's track forces edged the 1959 champs of last year, Belmont, 40 to 37, in the season's opener of the MET Track league on Saturday.

For the first time in a decade or so, Arlington dominated the field events. This, coupled with solid strength in the running events brought victory.

Belmont won six firsts out of nine events but Arlington piled up seven seconds and five thirds, while sweeping the shot put.

Football stars such as Radochia, Farrington, Buckley, Falwell and Martin lifted more than their weight.

Driving Rain Causes Damage

Sunday morning's driving rain caused considerable damage and trouble here.

After about three hours of normal rainfall starting at 6 a.m., a deluge followed with very high winds. It is estimated that an inch and a half fell during the final hour.

Mill Brook came within about an inch of overflowing, according to Francis O'Hara, sup't of Public Works. Major causes of backup was laid to jammed hunks of ice.

Awash were areas at Hemlock and Pine sts., Mass. ave. at Bates rd., end of Spring st. at the Concord turnpike, Waldo-Trowbridge-Windsor area, Kimball rd. and Davis ave., Mystic bank, Lawrence lane.

In these and other areas, manhole covers were lifted and sewer lines overflowed.

Several stores in all business sections reported losses and damage due to water damage through display windows.

The force of the wind—at gale velocity—drove the rain through the smallest opening.

Arcadians Ready For Title Defense

Opening the second half of the season with one of the best attractions of the South Shore Amateur Hockey League, the defending champions, the Arlington Arcadians will face the powerful Estes H.C. of Rockland in the first game of a doubleheader starting at 8:30 p.m. at the Boston Arena Thursday night.

This is a "must" game for the Rockland team. The Arcadians haven't lost a game, boasting of six straight wins. These two teams will meet two more times after Thursday's encounter and presently trail by five points in the standing.

In the other feature game, the new entry in the League, the Lynnfield Bruins take on the Conley H.C. of West Roxbury. One point separates the Conleys from Lynnfield, who presently is holding down the cellar spot. The West Roxbury team has added Charles-town's gift to amateur hockey, forward Buddy Sullivan to their roster in an effort to bolster their team for a run at a Play-Off spot.

Jim Bell of the Arcadians took over the top rung in the scoring race from Bill Cleary, who was idle last week, by scoring the "Hat-Trick" against the Lynnfield Club. All three goals coming in the last period. Line-mate Ritchie Cavanaugh jumped to the number three spot.

The Rockland team, composed mostly of former Brockton H.C. players, have always provided some of the best games played in the League when meeting Arlington. When this team was known as the Wetzell H.C., these two teams played to four over-time ties over the past two seasons.

One of the largest fund raising drives in the history of this community was launched this week.

Shooting at $200,000, heads of the Arlington Boys club are optimistic. If this sum is raised, $300,000 will be added by the Hayden Foundation to reach a total of a half million dollars.

With the possible exception of one or two church expansion programs and the final development of the addition to Symmes hospital, this sum is believed to be one of the highest ever to be raised in Arlington.

Arthur D. Saul, Jr., vice president and sales manager of Avery and Saul Co. of Cambridge, has been named general chairman of the $200,000 building fund for the construction of complete new facilities by the Arlington Boys' club. This has been announced by Francis L. Kenney, president of the board of directors.

Record of Service

Saul, who served as president of the Boys' club in 1956 and 1957, is a graduate of Dartmouth College and presently is serving as chairman of the Arlington Board of Selectmen. Long active in business and community affairs of Arlington, Saul has served as a member of the Finance Committee of Arlington, has headed the advance gifts section of the United Community Services annual appeal and is presently serving as vice president of the Arlington Five Cent Savings Bank and as a member of the board of trustees of Symmes hospital.

Subsequent to a great amount of study of need and other conditions, the Arlington Boys' club was recently given a conditioned grant of $300,000 from the Charles Hayden Foundation, toward a half million dollar building program.

Must Raise Funds

The trustees of the Foundation, in approving the amount, stipulated that the bequest would become available only when and if the Boys' club itself is able to raise the additionally needed $200,000 from interested businesses, citizens and other sources in Arlington and communities immediately adjacent to that town.

With full approval to conduct the campaign expressed by the United Community Services of which the Arlington Boys' club is a member agency, plans have been underway since early December to organize for the effort which will begin in January and culminate at the end of March.

"Our present facilities are taxed beyond their capacity," said President Kenney, "and if we are to continue without limiting membership and hours that boys may use the Club, we have no alternative but to build new and larger facilities."

"Arthur Saul has seen this problem grow and grow over the years and it is our good fortune that such a busy individual can find the additional time to head this campaign. I am extremely optimistic when I contemplate the Amazing!

Local officials called it—"amazing."

Undoubtedly the driest spot in the U.S.A. on Christmas Eve was in the heart of Arlington center.

Between the hours of 1 and 3 a.m. four local gendarmes and one Registry inspector stopped 223 cars at the junction of Massachusetts ave., Broadway and Medford st.

Board Grants Relief To Store Owner

Three parking stalls on Franklin st. in front of Gordon's Furniture Store were approved by the Selectmen this week.

Louis Gordon, owner of the store, had earlier appealed to town officials for aid in solving his parking problems.

With the recommendation of the town engineer, and the approval of the chief of police, the Selectmen voted to "amend the traffic rules and regulations" so that the stalls will be marked and the parking meters will be installed.

outcome under his leadership."

Mr. Saul, in accepting the position as chairman stated that "one fact above all others stands out and that is the Charles Hayden Foundation's recognition of our need—to the extent that they are willing to give us three-fifths of the amount of construction if the citizens are willing to subscribe the other two-fifths."

"In my memory, such a situation never existed in Arlington before and most certainly we should do our part and raise the $200,000 to provide our community with a well-equipped club that will, for years to come, offer our youth opportunities equal to any other progressive town or city."

"To assure that we go about the job correctly, we have engaged the firm of Hogan Winters and Company, Inc. of Boston and Rye, New York, as our Consultants. They have worked many years in the fields of boys' clubs and hospitals and their record is one of accomplishment. I look forward with great expectation to the ultimate success of our project," Saul said.

A PRICELESS RECIPE

In a health emergency, the little slip of paper on which your physician writes his prescription is priceless. You wouldn't part with it under any circumstances.

However, once the emergency has passed, human nature being what it is, you are apt to forget how valuable the prescription really was. Maybe you even grumble a little at its out-of-pocket cost, failing to remember the doctor's professional skill, the countless hours of pharmaceutical research and many other factors that made the "recipe" possible in a health crisis.

Permit our prescription department to fill your next "recipe for health."

The Hockey team squeezed by Rindge 1-0 on Dec. 30. Our lone goal was by Paul Donnelly. Last Saturday, we edged Cambridge 2-1. Goals were scored by John Morse and John Shannon. This Saturday we meet Newton whom we defeated 2-1 in our first game. Hope it's a repeat performance!

About 200 couples attended the Girls' club Christmas dance, held in Boston. All received paper hats as favors and danced to the music of Peter DeBer. A good time was had by all.

At the opening of the Met Track League, the A.H.S. team started the indoor track season off right with a 40-37 victory over defending champion, Belmont. Congratulations!!

The A.H.S. five played Cambridge last Tuesday and face Brookline tomorrow night.

The Science club meets tomorrow to work on projects and hear reports on the progress.

R.V.T. viewed the film, "Boston Arts Festival" on Jan. 5 and discussed it afterward.

A.H.S. extends a warm welcome to Mrs. Thomas Butler, the new assistant librarian.

"HE IS BEST OF ALL MEN WHO FOLLOWS GOOD ADVICE"

(Author's Name Below)

It is amazing how many people are quick to offer health advice. Without any study or knowledge, they tell you what you should do or take when you are sick. Thoughtless friends are sincere but unfortunately there are many opportunities. Some door-to-door peddlers and sharp mail order promoters consider profits more important than the good their products will do.

Wise men know the only person capable of giving good advice about how to treat sickness is a physician. They also realize when they obtain medicines and health-aids from a pharmacist consider health more important than immediate great profits, they are always safer.

Religious Speaker Is German Translator

The scientific basis of lasting peace will be the topic of a free lecture on Christian Science to be given in Arlington by Lona Koch-Meisen of Boston, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 12, at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Koch-Meisen, a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will speak in Robbins Memorial Town Hall under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Cambridge.

Her subject will be "Christian Science: The Answer to the World's Prayer for Peace."

A native of Darmstadt, Germany, she has traveled widely.

After graduating from the University of London, she taught English in Germany for several years. She became interested in Christian Science in 1927.

Since 1933 she has been in the public practice of Christian Science healing.

In 1952 she came to the United States where she served in Boston as translator of the German edition of the Herald, published by The Christian Science Publishing Society.

INCOME

New England Electric System reports on a preliminary basis consolidated net income for the full year 1959 of about $17,100,000, or an increase of approximately $1,200,000 over 1958.

This is equal to $1.33 a share on 12,821,366 average common shares compared to $1.29 on 553,074 less average shares in 1958.

Irwin L. Moore, chairman, in a year-end letter sent shareholders with quarterly dividend checks of 27 cents a share, pointed out that the improvement in per share earnings was accomplished in the face of higher labor and other costs, increased municipal taxes, and over half a million additional common shares.

He said the outlook for 1960 was encouraging and that New England Electric expected electric and gas sales would show improvements of about 7 and 14 per cent respectively over 1959.

THREE Arlington men were selected for the jury pool at Cambridge for Feb. 1. Chosen this week were Robert A. Wood, 36 Thorndike st., William W. Heuser, 55 Academy st., and Charles Godfrey, 62 Harlow st.

The Chips Are Down

As of last week, according to the Advocate's lead story, the chips are almost down as to Route 3. However, there is still time for a bit of maneuvering.

As we see it, the construction of the roadway is still several years ahead. But, the final plans are only months away.

Let's face it, Arlington is still in the middle, even though there are several communities involved.

The firm of engineering consultants to the State have proposed five different directions for the extension of Route 3 from its present dead-end at Route 128. Three of them would be disastrous to our Town, we believe.

Of the remaining two, one is not too harmful; the least harmful for some curious reason, does not even exist in black and white on any up-to-date planning map.

Possibly we are wrong but we just cannot believe that our neighboring towns of Winchester and Lexington are entirely oblivious to Arlington's plight and the inter-relationship of neighboring communities.

We suggest to our Board of Selectmen that a conference, or a series of them, around a bargaining table would be in order, immediately.

If these three towns — Arlington, Lexington and Winchester — could come up with a unified plan (through collective bargaining as to certain territorial rights and mutual property values), we feel that the State planners would and must accede to the joint wishes of these three respected communities.

TO: Householders

Recently we had occasion to go through residential sections of Belmont — one of the Commonwealth's better places.

There, too, the rubbish collectors toss the emptied barrels upside down, on lawns, in gutters, etc.

Nice to know?

Report On Route 3 Meeting

[This week the Town Manager released a report submitted to him on the Route 3 meeting held last week and reported in last week's issue on Page 1. The Town was represented by Joseph Callahan, ass't town engineer. His report follows — Ed.]

Mr. Hayden of the Consultants' firm of Hayden, Harding & Buchanan Inc. and Charles A. McGuire Assoc. opened the discussion in the absence of Mr. McCarthy, chief engineer of the State Department of Public Works; however, Mr. McCarthy arrived shortly after the discussion opened.

Mr. Rogers of the Consultants' firm enlightened the group as to the various alternate routes of the southwest expressway at the Charles River in the vicinity of the Cottage Farm Bridge.

The discussion was then taken over by Mr. Robert Agler, also of the Consultants' firm, who pointed out the various routes through Cambridge, Somerville, Medford, Arlington, Winchester, Belmont and Lexington connecting with the present stub under construction of the Medford Fells, also heading by various routes toward the present stub of Route 3 at Rt. 128 in Lexington.

The alternate routes heading for the stub of Rt. 3 at Rt. 128 in Lexington pass through or near Arlington in four different locations shown on their map in four colored legends, green, red, blue and brown. There was no preference to any of these routes expressed during Mr. Agler's discussion, and I will describe their location in order of the legend noted above.

The Green route enters Arlington at the foot of the lower Mystic Lake at the Medford line, then runs northerly across the foot of the lower Mystic Lake through the vicinity of Fairview and Draper Avenue crossing Mystic Street and passing somewhat north of the rear of the Bishop School, then continuing across the hill generally in the vicinity of Ridge Street through Mohawk Village and leaving the Town in the vicinity of Forest Street north of the Arlington-Winchester Town Line. This route is in much the same locus as the one protested by the Town a few years ago.

The Red alternate route is almost entirely in Winchester, running northerly up the lower and upper Mystic Lakes on the Medford side, then traveling westerly crossing Mystic Street in the vicinity of Old Mystic Street and through the Winchester Country Club into Winchester somewhat north of Hutchinson Road. This route is in much the same locus as the one suggested by the Town a few years ago.

The Blue alternate enters Arlington from Cambridge on the Boston & Maine track location and follows this location through the entire Town into Lexington continuing on the Boston & Maine locus to a point somewhat northwest of the East Lexington R.R. Station, then heading north across Great Meadows and crossing Maple Street, Lexington in the vicinity of so-called Sucker Brook, then northerly to the stub of Rt. 3 at Rt. 128. When questioned, Mr. Agler explained that there would probably be an overpass at Arlington Center and that there would probably be a 200 ft. taking along this locus. There would also be access roads at Mill Street and Summer Street and also at Brattle Street and Summer Street.

The Brown alternate enters Arlington at the Cambridge Line in the vicinity of the Alewife Brook Parkway and travels westerly along a proposed widening of the present Concord Turnpike (Rt. 2) to a point north of the Department of Public Works' building at Appleton Street, then running northerly in Lexington across Mass. Avenue in the vicinity of Oak Street and across the Boston & Maine R.R. at a point somewhat north of the East Lexington R.R. Station then continuing northerly along the previously-described Blue alternate. This alternate would have a frontage generally on the northerly or Arlington side of Rt. 2 with the exception of a section in the vicinity of Pleasant Street and Spy Pond. It was explained by Mr. Agler that this alternate was made very much along the lines of a State Department of Public Works' study made a few years ago.

Mr. Agler explained that

That Man About Town

By MAT

In case it escaped your notice, four out of five of the ways for Rt. 3, as proposed by a consulting firm to the state, would blight major sections of our Town!

The rain on Sunday was really pretty horrible for the holiday weekend but did more to remove the snow than any plows.

We, too, think Tom McNeeley is just fine but cannot get as excited as some. The young man must be trained to hit as he did in the 1st round — straight and sharp, not those roundhouses of the 4th round.

We "wonder" if Town Clerk Ann Mahon had not better begin thinking about taking out nomination papers for re-election. Nickel says she will be unopposed. The unsuccessful opponents whom she trounced are still licking their wounds, after a year.

And what about nomination papers for Town Treasurer?

Collector Coughlin?

Incumbent Selectmen Greeley and Rawson are challenged by Frank Hurd and, this week, a new name in Edward W. Murphy Jr. of 31 Sherborn St. So far, no word from the Heights.

New listee for Housing Authority is William Wettergreen of 33 Addison St. He and Bob Porteus, son of School Committeeman May Porteus, are buddies. Between them, a new idea is seldom lacking — usually with a catchy, humorous twist.

To date, the way things are shaping up, this year's election will not be half the fun we anticipated.

We learn that James Coffey, chairman of the Housing Authority, has been named to the committee on garaging town-owned vehicles. Until now, we never realized the possible similarity of the two jobs! Let's keep everything in one big, happy family.

THE LAND OF BEGINNING AGAIN

We come once more to the crossroads To the "Land of Beginning Again." With the dreams of the past behind us And the shadows of what has been.

But dawn again a tomorrow With the hope of another chance. The turn in the road unblemished Waiting for us to enhance.

Each step of the way a challenge For all of us who care. And every moment a choosing To catch us unaware.

For such is the way of earning Our merit sure and true. Such is the fresh recording Of everything we do.

Irrevocable there and indelible. With the present so soon the past: What a joyous thing a beginning. How poignant becomes the last.

But conquered alone each moment Within our quota of time, Surely the cost is little. When the purchase is so sublime.

JEWISH COUPLES

The Couples Club of the ALB Jewish Community Center is sponsoring a bowling party Saturday evening, Jan. 9 at 8:30 p.m. at the Wal-Lex Bowling Alley, program chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Mironer have announced.

WEST P.T.A.

"Coffee Conversation, and Consideration" opens the meeting for Junior High West mothers on Jan. 12 from 10 to 11 a.m. Mrs. Elinore Winer, instructor in developmental and remedial reading will lead the discussion.

there was also an alternate study being made from the stub of Rt. 3 at Rt. 128 traveling through Lexington and Winchester, much farther north than the Red alternate and running into the upper Mystic Lake in the vicinity of Cambridge Street in Winchester, then following down the Lakes on the Medford side. However, there were no large-scale maps showing this locus prepared at this time.

In closing the discussion both Mr. McCarthy, of Department of Public Works, and Mr. Hayden, of the Consultants' firm, requested that the Cities and Towns affected by these possible locations report a choice of alternates as soon as possible to Mr. Hayden of the Consultants' firm. They also stated that a choice of alternates would be made between now and Feb. 3, 1960 by the Consultants; however, this choice would not necessarily have to be accepted by the State Department of Public Works.

PERMISSION for a Wish-ing Well in front of Koford's restaurant during the month was granted by Selectmen to Robert E. Mahoney, local Dimes head.

LOCAL incorporator of the Italian-American Political Club of Boston, Richard F. Papaleo of 78 Lake St., was certified by Selectmen Monday.

Arlington In Review

(Reprinted From The Files Of The Arlington Advocate)

In 1885

75 Years Ago This Week
The public schools resumed their sessions on Monday. Rarely has a more enjoyable holiday season been granted, so far as weather was concerned.

The young folks had fine sport on Spy Pond last Friday and Saturday, the ice being on prime condition. Our cold snaps are of short duration.

There is much complaint about the telephone service — rather the lack of it. What is the matter?

In 1910

50 Years Ago This Week
The kerosene lamps and candles were in great demand all the first part of the week when our new and most convenient friend, the electric light, went back on us because of the storm which lasted for three days. The artistic glow shed by candles and lamps made for complete realization of the fact that there is never a gain without some loss.

The most serious fire Arlington department has been called out to cope with in some time occasioned the call from Box 65 early Wednesday evening. For some reason the first round sounded 55, occasioning confusion and delay on reaching the building on fire, which was the old Addison Hill house on Appleton street, now part of the Daniels estate. The house was badly damaged and the loss on furniture, pictures, drapes and bric-a-brac was estimated at from $3,500 to $5,000.

25 Years Ago This Week
At their meeting Wednesday evening the Board of Selectmen unanimously approved the petitions of the Boston Elevated Railway Co. and the Service Bus Line, Inc., to operate over two different routes in the town. The beginning of the end is in sight for those residents of the Heights who have labored long and diligently for transportation for that section.

In 1950

10 Years Ago This Week
At a long joint meeting Tuesday of the Planning Board and the Board of Selectmen the warrant for the March Town Meeting was officially opened. Subject of the meeting was the alleviation of the traffic problem in the center of town. The planning board has worked long and hard, coming up with several alternative plans from which to choose.

In 1960
Two officials of the Mystic Valley Gas Company met with the Committee on Garaging Town Owned Vehicles Saturday morning to discuss the possibilities of the Town acquiring the Gas Co. property on Grove St.

The Hardy school on Lake street was broken into by vandals New Year's Night and ransacked from top to bottom.

Behind the Business Scene

by REYNOLDS KNIGHT

NEW YORK, Dec. 28 — Is a sudden heavy snowfall good news for business, or only for bright-eyed children and operators of winter resorts? Economists will tell you a blanket of the white stuff can be good news indeed — especially in communities where unemployment is high and local business activity slack.

The good stems from the thousands of dollars in paychecks going to municipal employees called out to clear streets and sidewalks, and to repair damage. Often these workers are part-time employees, or otherwise entirely unemployed during the winter months.

But when $100,000 in pay get into the hands of the snow removal crews of Anytown, U.S.A., the local economy is in for a happy shot in the arm. Retail-trade is an immediate beneficiary. Some bills are paid, and probably some extra purchases are made — an appliance, home repairs, a minor luxury or two. Retailers then replenish shelf stocks from wholesaler supplies; retailers and wholesalers alike can liquidate borrowings, freeing money so banks can make loans to other borrowers.

Multiply the case of Anytown by perhaps hundreds of others — as happens when a giant low-pressure system dumps its white burden on a score or more states — and millions of people benefit. But economists will point out that the happy effects are, alas, only temporary. There's still no substitute for a well-fueled national boom, which can come or go, ignoring the caprices of the weather.

HOUSING GOLD RUSH? — The "gold rush" of the sixties will be toward housing, sparked next year by the construction of 1.3 million new U.S. homes, says a building materials industry leader.

H. Dorn Stewart, president of Allied Chemical's Barrett Division, comments: "This is only the start of the rising housing curve; its greatest climb probably won't be reached until the second half of the decade."

"Added to the usual first-time home buyer, who will be growing in number all through the sixties, will be a greater proportion of second-time buyers. Families whose breadwinners are between 40 and 54 will rise 1.5 million during the next 10 years," explains Stewart, who also heads the Producers Council.

"The second-time buyer will offer a particularly challenging problem to the building industry since he can be more discriminating. He already has a roof over his head, and he is willing to wait four to five years before committing himself."

Stewart concludes with this good news for the home buyer: Construction costs will be held in check by improved manufacturing techniques, improved methods of distribution, and greater use of durable but economical materials.

PEE WEE HOCKEY

Rockets 2, Blackhawks 0
"TD" Toczykowski and Peter Morse each netted a goal for the strong Rocket team. Dick McCarthy and Toczykowski were given assists on Morse's goal.

The Rockets were turned-back several times on spectacular saves by the Hawks' fine goalie.

Red Wings 3, Bruins 0

Bob Bertagna banged two goals and the Red Wings shut out the Bruins. Bert Jamgochian assisted Bertagna on both of his goals.

Bob Zink scored the first goal for the Wings on a solo dash.

Canadiens 3, Rangers 0

Kenny Donovan performed the "hat trick" with three goals as the Canadiens belted the Rangers. Bob Russo assisted Donovan on his first goal.

Play was in the Ranger's end most of the game.

Maple Leafs 0, Maroons 0

The Leafs and Maroons battled to a scoreless draw in the most evenly contested match of the day.

Fine position play on the part of both teams prevented either team from getting many scoring chances.

Obituaries

MARY R. TAYLOR

Mary Reynolds Taylor, wife of Arthur Taylor, died suddenly of a heart attack, in her home, 90 Alpine st. on Jan. 4.

Funeral services were held Jan. 6, at Saville Chapel, conducted by the Rev. Wilbur D. Canaday, pastor of the Park Ave. Congregational church, of which she was an active member.

Mrs. Taylor was a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants, also the John Alden Society. She was a life member of the Old Plymouth Colony Society; and a descendant of the Delano family.

Locally, she was an active member of the Menotomy Chapter, D.A.R., and a national committee chairman (DAR) of National Defense. She was a member of the Historical Society and the Golden Age club.

Mrs. Taylor is survived by her husband, a married daughter, Priscilla, who lives in Texas and Janet Taylor, at home.

Interment was in the family lot in Duxbury, Mass.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Thatcher of Arlington announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to Richard Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Robbins of Lincoln, Mass.

A March wedding is planned.

Local Firms Show Growth In Number

Statistics released yesterday by J. D. Lanpher, regional manager at the Boston office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reflect the growth of the business population in Arlington during the past years. Figures obtained from a count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1960 totaled 677 manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers as compared to 458 in January, 1950 — an increase of 32 per cent for the period.

During the same period, the number of business concerns in Middlesex County grew from 16,870 to 19,626.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists all manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit.

It does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figures for businesses in Middlesex County would actually be higher than the 19,626 quoted above.

STUDY CLUB

The Arlington Heights Study club will hold its first meeting in 1960 at the home of Mrs. Robert A. Wallace, 230 Oakland ave. Jan. 12.

Coffee hour will be at 1 p.m. The business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. J. Philip Bower.

Hostesses are Mrs. Paul W. Kidd and Mrs. Creelman F. McKenzie.

The theme for the year being "The New Look", it will be interesting to hear Mrs. Ariel A. Thomas as she speaks on "Transportation."

MABLE A. HOUGHTON

Mrs. Mabel A. (Putnam) Houghton of 5 Brattle st., died on Jan. 1, in a West Medford rest home. She was 88.

A native of Chelsea, Mrs. Houghton traced her ancestry to Revolutionary War Gen. Rufus Putnam. She lived in Cambridge and Worcester before moving to Arlington 20 years ago.

She was a member of the Boston Guild of the Hard of Hearing and the Boston Tea Party Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

She leaves a son, Harold P. Houghton of Arlington.

Funeral services were held Monday in the Woodlawn Cemetery Chapel, Everett.

STILL TABLED

The matter of appointing a successor to Robert W. Blaisdell who resigned after long service on the Building Board of Appeals is still tabled by Selectmen.

It is understood that his successor must be a "registered" architect, which narrows the field of persons eligible.

FAMILY COMMUNION

St. James Holy Name Society will observe holy family communion on Jan. 10.

Father Pollis, spiritual director, will celebrate the mass and deliver the sermon.

Following the Mass, members and their families will adjourn to the school hall where a small collation will be served. Guest speaker will be James E. McCabe, a member of St. Luke's Parish in Waverly, is a practicing attorney, having graduated from Boston College Law School, and is a member of the State and Federal Bar Association. He has chosen as his subject: "Mary, Queen of Family Life."

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Missionary Society of the Heights Baptist church will meet on Jan. 12 at 8 p.m. under the leadership of the president, Mrs. William Haynes.

Mrs. G. A. Brine will be in charge of devotions.

Special vocal music will be presented by Lois Jones, Marcia Dalrymple and Marjorie Hancock, with Mrs. Allan K. MacIver at the piano.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Nils Alsen, on "Our Work in the Belgian Congo".

Missionary literature and books arranged by Mrs. Harold Richards, literature chairman of the Society, will be available.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Benjamin Gott and Mrs. William Flemming.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. Elizabeth Awalt of 8 Bacon st. was honored at a surprise birthday party on New Year's day, commemorating her 78th birthday, at the home of her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Awalt of Watertown.

Mrs. Awalt was born in Ireland and came to this country when she was 18 years old and has made her home in Arlington ever since.

Those present were her daughter, Mrs. Arthur G. Carpenter, a grandson, David Carpenter of Needham, a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Eva H. Awalt and many friends who dropped in.

—Kenneth McCaffrey of 56 Ruble st. has been named to the dean's list of the Stenotype Institute of Boston.

"WORDS"

Sentiment
Soft is the hidden touch of sentiment.
Upon a world ravaged, and trouble bent.
How easily it falls prey to pride;
Or is cast, as a joke aside.
Yet, it yields a mighty sword
Uplifts in each success
And, in need,
Gives new hope to friends in need.
Shares in acts of love or worthy deed.
Inspires the faithful who would win life's race,
Brings us to God—face to face.

M. M. Spofford

A Thought For The Week

"All our troubles come from the fact that we think there are circumstances in which men can deal with human beings without love, and there are no such circumstances."

We begin to live when we begin to understand that except we work with love, we achieve nothing worthwhile, not even our happiness."

Tolstoy

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To Wash Lace
When fragile lace needs washing, paste it to a piece of clean white fabric, (cotton). Wash by hand. Dip gently through suds and rinse to remove soil.

A Tip On Curtains

To prevent uneven wear on curtains due to the action of light and sun on the fabric, make headings at both ends whenever possible, then reverse the position of the curtains after each wash.

COOKS CORNER

Doc's Girl answers request for Snow Pudding

Snow Pudding
2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/2 cup granulated sugar
Pinch of salt
1 cup hot water

1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 or 3 egg whites
1/4 cup granulated sugar
Sprinkle gelatin on 1/4 cup water in large bowl. Let soften for five minutes. Add 1/2 cup sugar, salt, hot water; and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Next, add lemon rind and lemon juice stir until well blended. Chill until almost firm. Beat egg whites until they form moist peaks. Add 1/4 cup sugar slowly to the whites and continue beating until stiff. Add to gelatin mixture with a hand mixer until thoroughly blended. Pour.

Use five or six individual molds or one large mold, cool then chill until set.

Serve with custard sauce made from the egg yolks left after making the pudding, or top with sliced fruit.

Doc's Girl
P.S. You are receiving the last letter from Doc's Girl as I have been discovered by Tom's Girl.

Doc's Girl,
Why not take a different "nom" and join us again?
Your Corner Editor

Little Pepper,
You guessed correctly. I am a Sunday School teacher and have been for more years than I like to remember! And many times on the cold, snowy mornings of my only day off, I ask myself, "Why do you do it?" The answer comes in many ways, but you know as well as I do.

Attention—what is attention? One particularly obstreperous boy, whom I had accused of inattention one time, repeated my last five sentences word for word. Thereafter I gave him the extra things to do, such as writing on the blackboard, reading the Bible references, etc.

No matter what lesson plan you prepare, you cannot keep strictly to it. There are bound to be questions which are not even remotely connected with the lesson. And isn't it more important to find out how the child's mind works?

One boy, who was the bane of every previous teacher, had to stay back in the fourth grade, and was transferred to my class. For two Sundays I could get nothing across to the class at all. So I wrote Bill a card asking him if he could make an outline map of Palestine. I explained we needed the map for our study and I couldn't draw at all. He did a beautiful job, getting his father to help him! He was sorry for me because I couldn't draw. After that—no trouble.

Your lesson gets across further than you think. One girl couldn't stand the quarterly on the Psalms. I explained we couldn't judge a book by one chapter, and offered a prize for anyone learning five Psalms. She read the whole book of Psalms to decide which ones she was going to memorize. One she chose was 133.

Why? Because she loved the oil running down upon the beard of Aaron. Beautiful poetry and she recognized it. One girl wrote for her prayer, "We thank you, thank you for your wonderful world of love."

There is one priceless gem in every class. That is why I teach. There is also a Bill in every class. That is why I wonder.

Integrity Has Meaning At Bremis

Neil Murphy's Minutes From Arlington Center

Winter driving certainly takes a heavy toll on motorist and automobile alike. Ignition systems, transmissions and many other parts are strained under adverse weather. A good friend for both motorist and automobile during these trying times is a reliable, trained service attendant who provides the type of service that means more carefree driving and smoother performance from your car.

Neil Murphy's Arlington Ezzo Station centrally located at 362 Massachusetts Avenue, next to American Legion Hall, just minutes from Arlington Center, is such a friend.

Real estate firms seem to be in abundance in most towns and in Arlington, but there are some who stand above all the rest. Such a firm is J. J. Bremis located on Mass. Ave. in East Arlington next to the Capitol Theatre. "Sold by J. J. Bremis" is a sign often seen on homes in Arlington and in surrounding communities. In fact, during 1958, Bremis sold $750,000 worth of homes and there is no finer testimonial to the integrity of J. J. Bremis in real estate transactions.

Mr. Bremis really knows property values and thus is able to arrange a bargain for both buyer and seller. Bremis handles all types of real estate and gives as much attention to the sale of a small bungalow as he does to the sale of a large mansion.

One thought that seems to govern Mr. Bremis is that the purchase of a home or business property is a man's largest, single investment for life. It is important therefore that a man does this thru a firm of experience and integrity.

Bremis is able to advise potential buyers as to the advisability of real estate transactions.

Service Has A True Ring Here

Service is an oft used word in business circles that sometimes carries a hollow ring, but Menotomy Pharmacy located at 1332 Massachusetts Avenue in Arlington Heights, genuine service is the very backbone of the company.

Francis G. Peters owner of the firm has made service and Menotomy synonymous. Menotomy offers free pick-up and delivery service on prescriptions for greater ease and comfort to those confined or unable to leave the house, and prescriptions as at all registered Pharmacies are fair and reasonable.

No Amateurs In This Business

A house like any valuable possession needs the tender care and professional attention to maintain its appearance and value to both homeowner and community. A house that has this careful attention is sure of its full value at time of transfer.

Lee Strickland, D.P. (Doctor of Paints) has the experience and training to keep your house in top shape. Lee, who resides in Arlington at 205 Spring Avenue, is a professional painter in every sense of the word. Being from the old school Lee offers many of the old ways that are still more adequate for the modern times, yet he keeps an eager eye for the new in order to keep his crew working efficiently.

Lee has been in the business here since 1949 and does both interior and exterior painting and to some extent interior decorating. Lee's truck can be seen in several surrounding communities as well as in all parts of Arlington attesting to the demand for his services and knowledge.

Among those who passed are Philip F. Canniff, 670 Mass. ave.; William T. Carroll, 185 Forest st.; Leopoldo J. Manfredonia, 30 Yerxa rd.; Charles Mulcahy, 43 Fremont ct.

Also Daniel E. McPhee, 67 Summit st.; William C. Pease, 11 Magnolia st.; Joseph A. Roper, 11 White st.; Albert E. Ryan Jr., 114B Sunny-side ave.; Harry R. Ryerson Jr., 86 Tufts st.

CUB PACK 387

December meeting of Pack 387 was held on Dec. 18 at the Cutter School with Cubmaster Stanley Tlaczuk presiding.

Opening exercises were conducted by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Fahey's Den 7.

Awards were presented to Robert Boyd, Stephen Casey, William Dinnie and Harold Mirakian.

Highlight of the evening was the exchange of gifts between cub scouts and presentation of gifts to parents.

Mrs. Savio and Mrs. Dinnie's Den 3 received the plaque for best attendance and appearance.

Carols were sung while ice cream and cookies were distributed.

SIMMONS CLUB

The January meeting of the Arlington - Winchester Simmons club will be held Tuesday at 7:30 at Robbins Library, Arlington Center.

Coffee and dessert, served by the hospitality committee whose Arlington chairman is Mrs. Robert Fisk, will precede the business meeting.

Attorney Edward E. Hicks of Winchester will be the featured speaker of the evening. A graduate of Harvard Law School and a member of the Massachusetts and Boston Bar Associations, he will speak on the timely subject "You and Your Taxes."

The program has been arranged by Miss Ruth Sparks of Arlington, program chairman.

ETTA G. ROUSE

Miss Etta Gertrude Rouse, 83, of 35 Lowell st. died on Dec. 29 after a long illness. A resident here for the past five years, she was a retired employee of the M.T.A. She was born in Somerville. The Rev. Ernest Thompson, minister from Cambridge, officiated at afternoon funeral services on Dec. 31 at the Daniel F. O'Brien funeral home. Interment was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

ABIGAIL C. HORGAN

Dr. Abigail C. Horgan, D.M.D., of 19 Upland rd., died on Dec. 29 in Middletown, R.I., after a short illness. She was 73. A resident here for 29 years, Dr. Horgan practiced dentistry in Inman Square. She was a member of the Guild of St. Apollonia. She leaves her husband, Dr. Joseph Horgan, D.M.D., and a son, Dr. Joseph T. Horgan, C.B.I., of the U.S. Navy. Funeral services were held on Jan. 2 in the Daniel F. O'Brien funeral home, Arlington, followed by a high requiem mass in St. Agnes church. Burial was in Cambridge cemetery.

Named Chairman

Arlington's 1960 Heart Fund clubs and organizations chairman will be Atty. James C. Doyle, 23 Chester street, it was announced this week by Joseph S. Daly, local general chairman.

The February campaign will raise funds to fight diseases of the heart and circulation, which cause more than half of all deaths in the state and nation. The month-long fund campaign will be climaxed on Heart Sunday, Feb. 28, when homes in the entire community will be visited for contributions by Heart Neighbors.

GARDEN CLUB

The Garden club will meet on Wednesday, Jan. 13, at 2:00 p.m. in Library hall. This will be "Home Talent Day". Members will exhibit their hobbies and slides will be shown of members' gardens and trips.
